Best Bet of the Day

Race #8

(2) JIMMY the HAT

He tried the dirt last time out at KEE, to no avail, as he just literally hated it. He ends up back on the tapeta today, after showing an affinity for this surface at TP. He exited a sensational win in an MCL event on 12/8/24, and came right back and ran a solid second in the Starter at TP against much tougher in that event. He easily fits in this $6250 N2L event.

SPOT Play of Day

Race #2

(7) RICHIESINTHEHOUSE

Trainer Mike Pappada had this older hard knocking boy in decent condition, and after running a solid third, he looks to primed and ready to run back well here. It's an anomaly here at PID, that many of the horses coming off the winter bench need a "Trip over the strip". An 8 time winner here at PID, in addition he has only missed the board once in 13 attempts. He's the lone speed today, and he's gonna play catch me if you can.
