BEST BET OF THE DAY

Race #6

(3) CASCADE PARK

Could this be a big day for Live Oak Plantation today? It sure seems as if it will be starting with Cascade Park. A regally bred Daughter of Medaglia d'Oro, she is going to drop out of the 1X, and Trainer Trombetta is going to get aggressive entering into the $20k claimer and should be victorious in this spot. A bold move for a young filly this well bred, but it is July 5th and the breeding sheds are now closed, so the threat of a hostile takeover have diminished.

Race # 5

(2) Atlantic Sun

A solid performer here at PID, Atlantic Sun (GB), looks as if he has found his niche here. He is dropping back down into the claiming ranks out of a very, very tough Starter last time out. The Winner out of that race is now in the Stake today, so that tells you just how tough the race really was. With 6 victories out of 10 starts, here at PID, he's a natural over this surface. Regular Pilot Erin Walker is back in the Irons today.
